BUTWELL'S SKILL COUNTS

MILTON B. WINS HANDICAP AT PALMETTO PARK BECAUSE OF HIS RIDER'S ABILITY.

Lochiel Beaten in Close Finish—Favorites Win Five Races Over Track That Is Muddy from Rain of Night Before.

Charleston, S. C., February 12.—The principal incident of today's racing at Palmetto Park came in the fourth race, a handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, in which Milton B., Lochiel and Jawbone were the starters, John Furlong having been withdrawn. The race developed into a duel between Milton B., ridden by Butwell, and Lochiel, on which Corey had the mount. The two fought it out strenuously from barrier rise and their riders indulged in every riding trick at their command. Butwell's superiority prevailed at the end and accounted for Milton B.'s neck victory. To some of the spectators it seemed as if Butwell was the aggressor in the unfair riding tactics, but the stewards decided otherwise and suspended Corey for six days for leg-locking Butwell. The latter offense is said to have taken place just before the two entered the stretch.

Threatening weather, succeeding a hard rain last night, militated against the sport, caused a slump in attendance and detracted in general from the racing. The track suited the sturdiest of mud runners. The talent was in good form, the purses going to five favorites and a second choice. The results were attended with considerable loss to the ring. Jockey Butwell was in the limelight through winning half the card. Goose also showed good form in landing two winners. The other winner, Sylvestris, was ridden by Pickens.

Sylvestris began the afternoon's proceedings by cantering away from the others in the opening dash. J. L. Holland's Gordon turned the tables on his former conqueror. Please Welles, by winning the second race as his rider pleased. Chemulpo was decidedly best of the starters in the third race and won cantering from New Haven, the latter beating the second choice, Berkeley, in handy fashion. The closest finish came in the fifth race, when Ethel Le Brune just lasted to beat Viley. Spellbound had a narrow escape from defeat in the closing dash, for, had Fiel been given a smug ride, he could not have lost.

H. G. Bedwell made an unsuccessful effort today to have General Manager Pons rescind his order for jockey Grand's expulsion.

Jockey Guy Burns will do the stable riding for Frank E. Brown, succeeding Ganz.

No Manager, the half-brother to the great Hermis that Wayne Joplin sent to the post today in the two-year-old scramble, is said to have shown some good trials over the Palmetto Park track. The colt acted green at the barrier and was further handicapped by being caught in the webbing at the start.

G. W. Langdon has bought Salou from W. Du Bois for $2,250, a stiff advance over the price for which the latter bought the colt at the Lawrence & Comstock sale at Palmetto Park Saturday. Salvation Rey, purchased by Mr. Du Bois, has been transferred to the Thomas F. Sheedy stable, of which Andrew G. Blakeley is trainer.

There was little doing at Palmetto Park this morning in the way of work, for the reason that the course was muddy. The following work-outs took place outside the "dogs":

Armor—Five-eighths in 1:10, breezing.
Black Chief—Three-eighths in 40. Liked the soft going.
Cheer Up—Mile in 1:49, handily. An improved horse in muddy going.
Edna Leska—Three-eighths in 39. Will probably improve in muddy going.
Ella Grane—Three-eighths in 40.
Ethelburg II.—Five-eighths in 1:07. Is right on edge and will run good race first time out.
Font—Three-quarters in 1:23, breezing.
Grosvenor—Five-eighths in 1:08. Is getting slow work in plenty and looks good. Will get to the front before long.
Harcourt—Half mile in 58. Sulks in work, but not in races. Is extra good.
Island Queen—Three-eighths in 38. Good work and liked the soft going.
Joe Rose—Mile in 1:56, cantering. Is good.
Miss Gayle—Three-eighths in 39. Is shaping up nicely for Saturday's stake.
Motherkins—Three-eighths in 41. Seems to be of little account.
Naughty Lad—Mile in 1:54. Is fit and runs well in the mud.
Pliant—Half mile in 54. Is ready and likes the mud.
Silas Grump—Three-quarters in 1:22. Did it easily and is in extra good condition.
Swart's Hill—Half mile in 53. Good move and is ready.

GERMANY'S CAVALRY REMOUNT SUPPLY.

Commenting approvingly on the work undertaken by the Canadian Breeding Bureau, London Sportsman of a recent date says: "The bureau, in quiet, unassuming fashion, has undertaken on its own responsibility a task which in Germany and France is under the direct supervision of the state, i. e., that of setting up the machinery for the satisfactory solution of the remount problem. It is pointed out that in Germany 550,000 horses would be required for mobilization purposes, and that every one of those horses could be secured in Germany at short notice, each of them, moreover, a real war horse, containing 50 per cent or more of thoroughbred blood. This condition of things has only been brought about by sixty-five years of bureau work, by the expenditure of huge sums, by the maintenance of expensive government depots, and by paying the top price for the very best thoroughbred sires. Forty-three years ago 15,830 mares were bred to government stallions in Germany (the year of the war with France). In 1910 the number of mares had been trebled, the total reaching 47,616 mares. No wonder that Germany has little or no cause to be troubled concerning remounts.

"The German Army buys from the German farmers something like 12,000 remounts every year, as three-year-olds, which remain in the remount depots for one year, during which they are broken to saddles by specially able soldiers, and afterwards drafted to the different regiments. On a peace footing the German Army has now 125,000 first-class cavalry horses, and the chief of the German Army Staff can get half a million more by 'touching a button.' Compare this system with the troubles of England during the Boer War, when we required half a million horses and mules, and had to search the world and pay fancy prices for animals, many of which were useless when landed, or died on the way to South Africa, and it will be seen that the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding is taking on a big task. France and Austria-Hungary are other great European powers that can mobilize without going outside their own borders for cavalry horses, and the United States is now following the lead set by Canada in starting a breeding bureau. Prominent owners like Messrs. Belmont, Whitney and others have given thoroughbred stallions to the United States bureau."

THE BUSY RACERS OF THE YEAR JUST CLOSED

In 1912 the ever present Camel upheld his strenuous record of previous years by starting in sixty-two races and at that only ran in one race more than did the Hermis filly, Helene. Don Enrique and Kootenay each started in fifty-eight races over far western tracks and each contrived to win twelve, but Kootenay was more frequently placed than the moody old half brother to Beldame and therefore won considerably more money. Mad River could win but three races in fifty-six starts and even slighter was the reward of the formerly useful horse, High Range, with his score of two victories in fifty races. Horses are asked to do more in this country than is the custom abroad and the list of those that were sent to the post thirty-five or more times in 1912 is quite lengthy, being as follows:

JUAREZ GETS MORE RAIN

MEXICAN TRACK CONTINUES IN AN EXTREMELY DEEP AND HOLDING CONDITION.

Four Favorites Numbered Among Yesterday's List of Winners—Cockspur No Longer in Maiden Class.

El Paso, Tex., February 12.—Four favorites succeeded in scoring over the deep and holding track that prevailed at Juarez this afternoon. They were Lescar, Miss Jean, Orimar Lad and Cockspur. Long shots captured the other races, including Mayerdale at 10 to 1 and Stick Pin at 20 to 1.

Miss Jean has a great fondness for the kind of a track she ran over today. She quickly raced to the front and won unextended.

Stick Pin, which was reported as being far from ready, ran a fine race. She receded in the betting from 6 to 1 to 20 to 1. She scored easily after racing the favorite, Mercurium, into submission.

Cockspur, the property of Henderson & Hogan, and well thought of as a candidate for the Kentucky Derby of last year, finally succeeded in graduating from the maiden class by winning the mile and a sixteenth race from a fair lot of selling platers. He is a grand-looking horse and traveled throughout this going with comparative ease to win in a canter.

A. L. Valentine bid up Stick Pin from $300 to $600, but she was protected by owner B. E. Chapman.

Charles W. Clark, the Butte and California multi-millionaire, paid his first visit to the Juarez course today. He came to inspect his horses that are racing here in charge of trainer John Lowe. He sent his first consignment here last season, but could not attend himself. His racing string is now comprised nearly entirely of horses of his own breeding. The stud is located at his beautiful home, El Cerito Park, at San Mateo, Cal. He intends to tarry here for quite a while.

The following work-outs took place yesterday afternoon following the racing:

Duncraggan—Half mile in 58, breezing. Sulks in his work.
Rogon—Half mile in 58, breezing. Is not of much account at present.

This morning the track was in extremely bad condition as a result of more rain during the night and only a few horses worked, as follows:

Ancestors—Three-eighths in 46, cantering. Prefers dry track.
Auto Run—Half mile in 58, cantering.
Bachelor Gorl—Five-eighths in 1:16. Is good and can win when properly placed.
Capitan Bravo—Half mile in 58, cantering. Is training well.
Dudo—Three-eighths in 46, cantering.
Engraver—Half mile in 58, cantering. Has taken on flesh during let-up.
Eye White—Half mile in 58, cantering. Looks good and should race better.
George Oxnard—Three-eighths in 42, breezing. Is good and revels in the mud.
Hatteras—Half mile in 54⅘, handily. Exceedingly good work.
Insurance Man—Three-eighths in 43⅘, cantering. Is being trained slowly.
Irish Gentleman—Three-eighths in 42, breezing. Likes the mud and is at his best.
Jim Cafferata—Three-eighths in 43⅘, cantering. Has had a let-up on account of blistered shoulder.
Joe Deibold—Three-eighths in 46, cantering. Is being trained slowly.

NOTES OF THE FOREIGN TURF.

W. Hall Walker has disposed of the three-year-old colt Fantasio, by Count Schomberg—Jean's Folly, to Sol Joel for $15,000.

John Loveday of Reading, chief gatekeeper of the Royal Enclosure at Ascot Races for nearly forty years, died on Saturday, January 25, aged eighty.

Baron Von Trutzschler, who buys for the German market, recently made Robert Sievier an offer of 15,000 guineas for the Cesarewitch winner Warlingham. This, however, has been refused.

The Irish-bred hurdler and steeplechaser Bernstein, which has attracted much attention by his performances in England this winter, has been purchased by Sir C. Assheton-Smith for the reported price of $20,000.

The American jockey F. Slade, who has been riding in Belgium with much success, is leaving shortly for Germany, having accepted an engagement to ride the horses owned by Messrs. Bischof and Buggenhagen during the coming season.

The well-known hurdle racer Zim was found dead in a paddock at Wagga, Australia, recently. A post-mortem examination indicated that the cause of death was snakebite. Zim was by Yuranigh—Forget Me Not, and had won many races in the Riverina.

F. C. Stern's beautiful mare Flair has just dropped a fine colt foal by Radium. Flair now visits Llangwm. Mr. Stern has also a lovely yearling filly by Spearmint—Flair, for which he has already refused a large sum. It will be recalled that Mr. Stern four years ago gave 15,000 guineas for Flair and her Gallinule colt foal.

GARTH STABLE BIGGEST IN COUNTRY.

Washington, D. C., February 12.—Trainer William Garth, who wintered the largest stable of thoroughbreds in training in this country at his farm in Charlottesville, Va., has shipped the entire string of forty-eight horses to the Benning track at Washington, D. C.

The string has been doing regular work during the winter. He will have a number of his charges ready for the Jamestown spring meeting, which opens March 31. His two-year-olds, which number twenty, have been looked over by good judges and have been pronounced a grand looking lot.

Waterspeed, a well-known jumper that had the misfortune to break down a year ago last fall in a race at Pimlico, has a chance to stand training. She has been taken up by Tim Donohue, who is now at Genessee, N. Y., with the mare.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A handbook man in Perth, West Australia, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment with hard labor as an idle and disorderly person. The police evidence was to the effect that he had been taking bets systematically for years, but they appear to have taken no action until he welshed, and one of the man's customers complained that he could not get his winnings.

A divorce from James T. (Tod) Sloan, the former jockey, was obtained in New York a few days ago by his wife, who is Julia Sanderson in the theatrical world. On motion of Sloan's own lawyer a counter suit against his wife was dismissed, the attorney declaring his client's allegations were without basis of facts. The couple married secretly in New York in 1907, when the bride was seventeen years old. Sloan is in Paris.

Writing in the "Australasian," Chiron says: "The repeated success of English horses in big Australian races during the past few seasons again raises the question as to whether there has been any deterioration in Australian race horses of late years. The fact that so many horses who were moderate performers in England have been successful in Australia seems to point to the conclusion that Australian horses are not as good as they were twenty years ago."
